

Application Guidelines for the Second Call for the 2020 UTokyo
Foundation for Supporting International Students

1. Eligibility

Self-financed international students who satisfy all of the following criteria.

- (1) Applicant must have good academic record and character.
- (2) Applicant must be enrolled at the University of Tokyo as a student in regular courses or a research student as of October 2020 and is expected to be registered throughout the year.
  - ※ Students who will still be registered even though they exceed the standard course duration may also apply.
- (3) Applicants who require assistance with their tuition fees.
  - ※ Applicants who are still employed by and receiving salaries from government agencies or other organizations in their home country while they are studying overseas, or any applicants receiving financial support (in excess of JPY 50,000 per month) from other sources are not eligible to apply.
- (4) Applicants must have Status of Residence as “Student” as specified in the Immigration Control and Refugees Recognition Act (Government Ordinance No.319, October 4, 1951 Appended Table 1-4) as of October 2020.

2. Scholarship Amount

JPY 50,000 per month

3. Period of Payment

6 month period (October 2020 to March 2020)

- (In principle, extension of the period of payment will not be made.)

4. Number of Scholarships Available

10

5. Documents for Submission

- (1) Application for Scholarships (typed in Japanese or English) (Form 1) 1 copy
- (2) Letter of recommendation from supervising faculty (Form 2) 1 copy
- (3) Copy of Residence Card (or Certificate of Alien Registration Card regarded as the Residence Card.) 1 copy

6. Period and Method of Application

Contact the relevant office of your affiliated Graduate School

7. Selection and Notification Method of Recipients

The Director General of the Division for Global Campus Initiatives will make the selection based on the recommendations of the Deans of the Graduate Schools. The applicants will be notified of the selection results through the Dean of their affiliated Graduate School.

8. Miscellaneous

Even after selection as recipients of the scholarships, if the fund determines that any one of the following points applies to the recipient, the selection decision will be revoked. (Where necessary, repayment of the scholarships already paid deemed may be demanded.)

- (1) If the scholarship was obtained by false declaration on the application or any other dishonest means.
- (2) If the recipients goes on a study abroad program or leaves the university.
- (3) Any other reasons where the recipient loses eligibility to receive the scholarship.